

HISTORIC BARN TOUR

SAVE THE DATE

Coming to Franklin County

June 17–18, 2011

The Historic Barn and Farm Foundation of Pennsylvania is pleased to be holding its Annual Meeting and Barn Tour in Franklin County. This two-day event will feature historic barns and people who tell their stories. Be part of this exciting event. Details on meeting location and registration fees will be available in mid-April in the HBFF of PA semi-annual newsletter, The Forebay Post. (see below for contact information)

Thank you to HBFF of PA Board members Gene Wingert and Dianna Heim for their invitation to bring our meeting to Franklin County, with planning assistance from Ken Sandri, secretary, Greg Huber, vice president, Bob Ensminger, Jeff Marshall and Fred Will.

Join us for a special experience and learn more about historic barns and their special features.

- Friday, June 17th - Annual Meeting and Banquet will feature Phil Schaff and Dianna Heim, presenting a photographic tour of documented Cumberland Valley brick-end barns.
- Saturday, June 18th - Bus tour visiting nine historic barns in Franklin County, with HBFF of PA barn experts serving as guides.

Historic Barn and Farm Foundation of Pennsylvania

Sheila Miller, president
80 Witman Road
Womelsdorf, PA 19567
610-589-5617

For more information
& registration form, visit www.pahistoricbarns.org.